

Smart and Sustainable Energy Port Project: the results of the final event in Bar (Montenegro)

On June, 27 2023, the Port of Bar (ME) organized the Final event of the SMARTPORT Project in Bar, at the Hotel Princess (Montenegro).

The event was the last Project activity and all Project Partners of the consortium were present in Montenegro to highlight the relevance of the Project results, the high quality of the work done, and the good cooperation among the Partners.

Read more...

A training course for energy managers in Taranto (Italy)

On June, 23 the Port Network Authority of the Ionian Sea, in collaboration with the Order of Engineers of Taranto, organized the training course "Energy Management for the energy transition".

Read more...

Two working days in Termoli (Italy)

On May, 30-31 the Municipality of Termoli (IT) organized two working days dedicated to new and efficient energy strategies to save and store energy and improve the use of smart grid technologies.

Read more...

For more information about activities carried out by the Project Partners, results achieved and Project outputs, visit the SMARTPORT Project website:

- News and events
- Project outputs
- Project multimedia galley

